

Andrew Lemmon

Mediator

Mr. Lemmon, a litigation attorney for 25 years, formed the Lemmon Law Firm, LLC in 1996, with offices in New Orleans and Hahnville. He offers services as a civil mediator and as a qualified domestic mediator. Mr. Lemmon has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in civil, domestic, and environmental litigation. He also has worked for local government agencies in sales tax collection and environmental matters.

985-783-6789

andrew@lemmonlawfirm.com

<https://www.perrydampf.com/neutrals/andrew-lemmon>

Concentrations

Civil

Domestic

Environmental

Education

Master of Environmental Laws –
George Washington University's
National Law Center 1994

JD, Loyola University School of Law,
1987

BA, Louisiana State University, 1984

Recognitions

Louisiana Association for Justice

American Association for Justice

Reach Out America, Board of Directors

Louisiana Bayou Keeper, Inc.

Public Justice Foundation

Waterkeeper Alliance, Inc

Biography

Mr. Andrew A. Lemmon is a New Orleans-born trial attorney with more than thirty-five years' experience practicing law in Louisiana, Washington state, and many federal courts. He has worked in the field of environmental law, toxic and mass torts, business, succession, and complex litigation. He has also worked on multi-district, class actions, shareholder/securities cases and other litigation and legislative matters. Recently, he was chair of the discovery committee in the Taxotere pharma litigation and the successful prosecution and settlement of the Blue Cross Blue Shield Antitrust Litigation.

For over ten years, Mr. Lemmon represented various local governments in connection with sales and use tax laws and legislation, specifically addressing the constitutional authority and statutory interpretations regarding the assessment and collection of those taxes. He also worked with local governments in connection with land use and zoning issues as they affect development and enforcement, whether in a legislative, administrative, or a litigation environment.

Mr. Lemmon earned a Master of Laws degree (LL.M.) in Environmental Law from the George Washington University National Law Center, a Juris Doctor from Loyola College of Law in New Orleans (Law Review), and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Louisiana State University. Mr. Lemmon worked as an intern for the United States Department of Justice in the Environmental Enforcement Section, represented the City of New Orleans in environmental and tax issues, and now represents the Louisiana Municipal Association in connection with emergency room upcharges to their self-funded workers' compensation plan.

Mr. Lemmon is the oldest of six children and the proud father of Stuart Thomas Lemmon, a senior at the University of New Orleans. He is married to Joan Marie Folse Lemmon, a graduate of the John Folse Culinary Institute, and is the proud stepfather of Hillary Cheramie and Everett Planchet. Andrew's hobbies include time with family and friends, travel, cooking and dining, gardening, and fishing.

Mr. Lemmon is on the Board of Directors of Reach Out America, an organization formed to assist evacuees after Hurricanes Katrina and Rita; Louisiana Bayou Keeper, Inc., an affiliate of Waterkeeper Alliance, Inc.; Krewe of Chronos, a Mardi Gras Krewe; Mardi Gras Lacrosse Tournament; and a number of other social, civic, and charitable organizations.