Biography

Mr. Dampf was admitted to the Louisiana Bar in 1979. For 38 years, he was a member of Stockwell, Sievert, Viccellio, Clements & Shaddock in Lake Charles, Louisiana and is now retired from the firm. He is an experienced trial lawyer at the state and federal level and argued cases in State and Federal Courts of Appeal and the Louisiana State Supreme Court.

In addition to his active mediation schedule, he is also a frequent author and lecturer on the subject of mediation and arbitration processes. As a certified instructor on the topics of mediation and arbitration, Mr. Dampf has conducted mediation seminars and training for lawyers and business groups from Los Angeles, CA to Dublin, Ireland. He has conducted ADR programs for Tulane University School of Law, Louisiana State University Law School, Southern University Law School, Loyola University School of Law, Louisiana State Bar Association, and numerous specialty bar groups. He also held instructor status at McNeese State University.

In 2018, Mr. Dampf was appointed by the governor, with confirmation of the Senate, to represent the 6th Congressional District on the LSU Board of Supervisors. His term of service ends June 1, 2024.

Mr. Dampf was selected to be included in The Best Lawyers in America® in the practice area of Alternative Dispute Resolution (2011). He was also a Louisiana Top-Rated Alternative Dispute Resolution Lawyer by Super Lawyers in 2007 - 2008 and 2010-2023. He was the President of the Southwest Louisiana Bar Association from 1996-97. He is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association (current member, former Treasurer, former Board of Governor member and former House of Delegates member).
